About This Game

29 acts as the first chapter in a series titled No Longer Home: a magical realist point and click game that follows the personal experiences of Bo and Ao: two graduates preparing to move out of their flat.

Wander through an intimate flat, examining the everyday belongings of the Bo and Ao; delve into their thoughts and insights, and mould your interpretation of the characters through branching, multiple-choice dialogue. Have BBQs, play video games and stay up late, just talking in bed.
